VIGILANTES WILL ORDER EARLE TO LEAVE MONROE

All Taxpayers to Organize To-Night to Inform Him that Neither He Nor His Affinity Can Live in That Place.

“AFFINITY’S” HOME FOUND,
BUT IT IS BOARDED UP.

Miss Kuttner Lives with Her Mother at No.
217 West Seventy-eighth Street—Neighbors Say Family Is Wealthy, but Very Quiet.

If Frederick Pinney Earle, the artist Socialist, should be careless enough to return from New York to his country home to-night he will be waited upon by a delegation of citizens of the town of Monroe, acting on behalf of a vigilance committee, and informed that a man who believes in trading wives at the dictates of the soul's longing will not be exactly welcome in that community any longer.

It is probable that the party will go further and advise Earle that the usually salubrious climate of Orange County may become extremely unhealthy if either he or his new found affinity, Miss Julia Kuttner, should be found in the neighborhood after a certain time.

“AFFINITY’S” HOME CLOSED.
“Affinity,” otherwise Miss Julia Kuttner's home, No. 217 West Seventy-eighth street, was found boarded up to-day when a reporter called. It is a private residence in a good neighborhood, and the sign of prosperity, the blank summer boarding on door and windows, carries out the neighbors’ opinions that the family is wealthy.

According to the neighbors Miss Kuttner is an auburn-haired, quiet, rather plain young woman of twenty-two or twenty-four years, who wears glasses and holds aloof from acquaintance. She went abroad this spring, when she is supposed to have met Earle.

Or the family of five children of the widowed mother the oldest boy goes to Harvard and the youngest to Columbia.

It was openly announced this afternoon in the streets of Monroe that a mass-meeting of 100 or more grown men could be held at 11 o'clock to-night in barn on the road leading from the village to the Earle estate.

A number of standing in the county have unified their intention of being present at enrolling in the proposed Morality League as it will probably be called.

It is promised that everything will be done in an orderly manner. A president will be chosen, and a committee will be appointed to go direct from the house to Earle's house—providing he has returned from the city by his mission being to inform him the pressing wishes of his former ends and acquaintances.

All Taxpayers in Movement.
The coolness and the deliberateness with which this project is being disposed in Monroe show pretty accurately the attitude of the population toward the man who on yesterday sent his wife and child away from him after announcing his intention

POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 5.—The Giants began their last series with the Phillies this afternoon on wet grounds before a crowd of 2,000 people.

The New York club is still strong in their protest over O'Day's decision, which allowed Brooklyn to win yesterday, and the question will have to be decided by the National Commission.
It may be that this decision will decide who will take second place between the Giants and Pittsburgh. O'Day called time immediately after the collision between Doyle and Alperman, and declined to allow Doyle's score to count.

It is contended by the New York Club that the rules do not allow an umpire to call time on account of an accident until the play is completed. O'Day said this afternoon that he has a right to call time whenever he sees fit.

On that point the issue of before the highest baseball tribunal—the National Commission.

Doyle is too badly injured still to play and Strang took second place in the game. Doyle's leg was twisted and bruised near the knee.
